light the corners of my mind
misty watercolored memories of the way we were

scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind smiles we gave to one another for
the way we were

could it be that it was all so simple then or has time rewritten every line
if we had the chance to do it all again
tell me . . .
would we could we

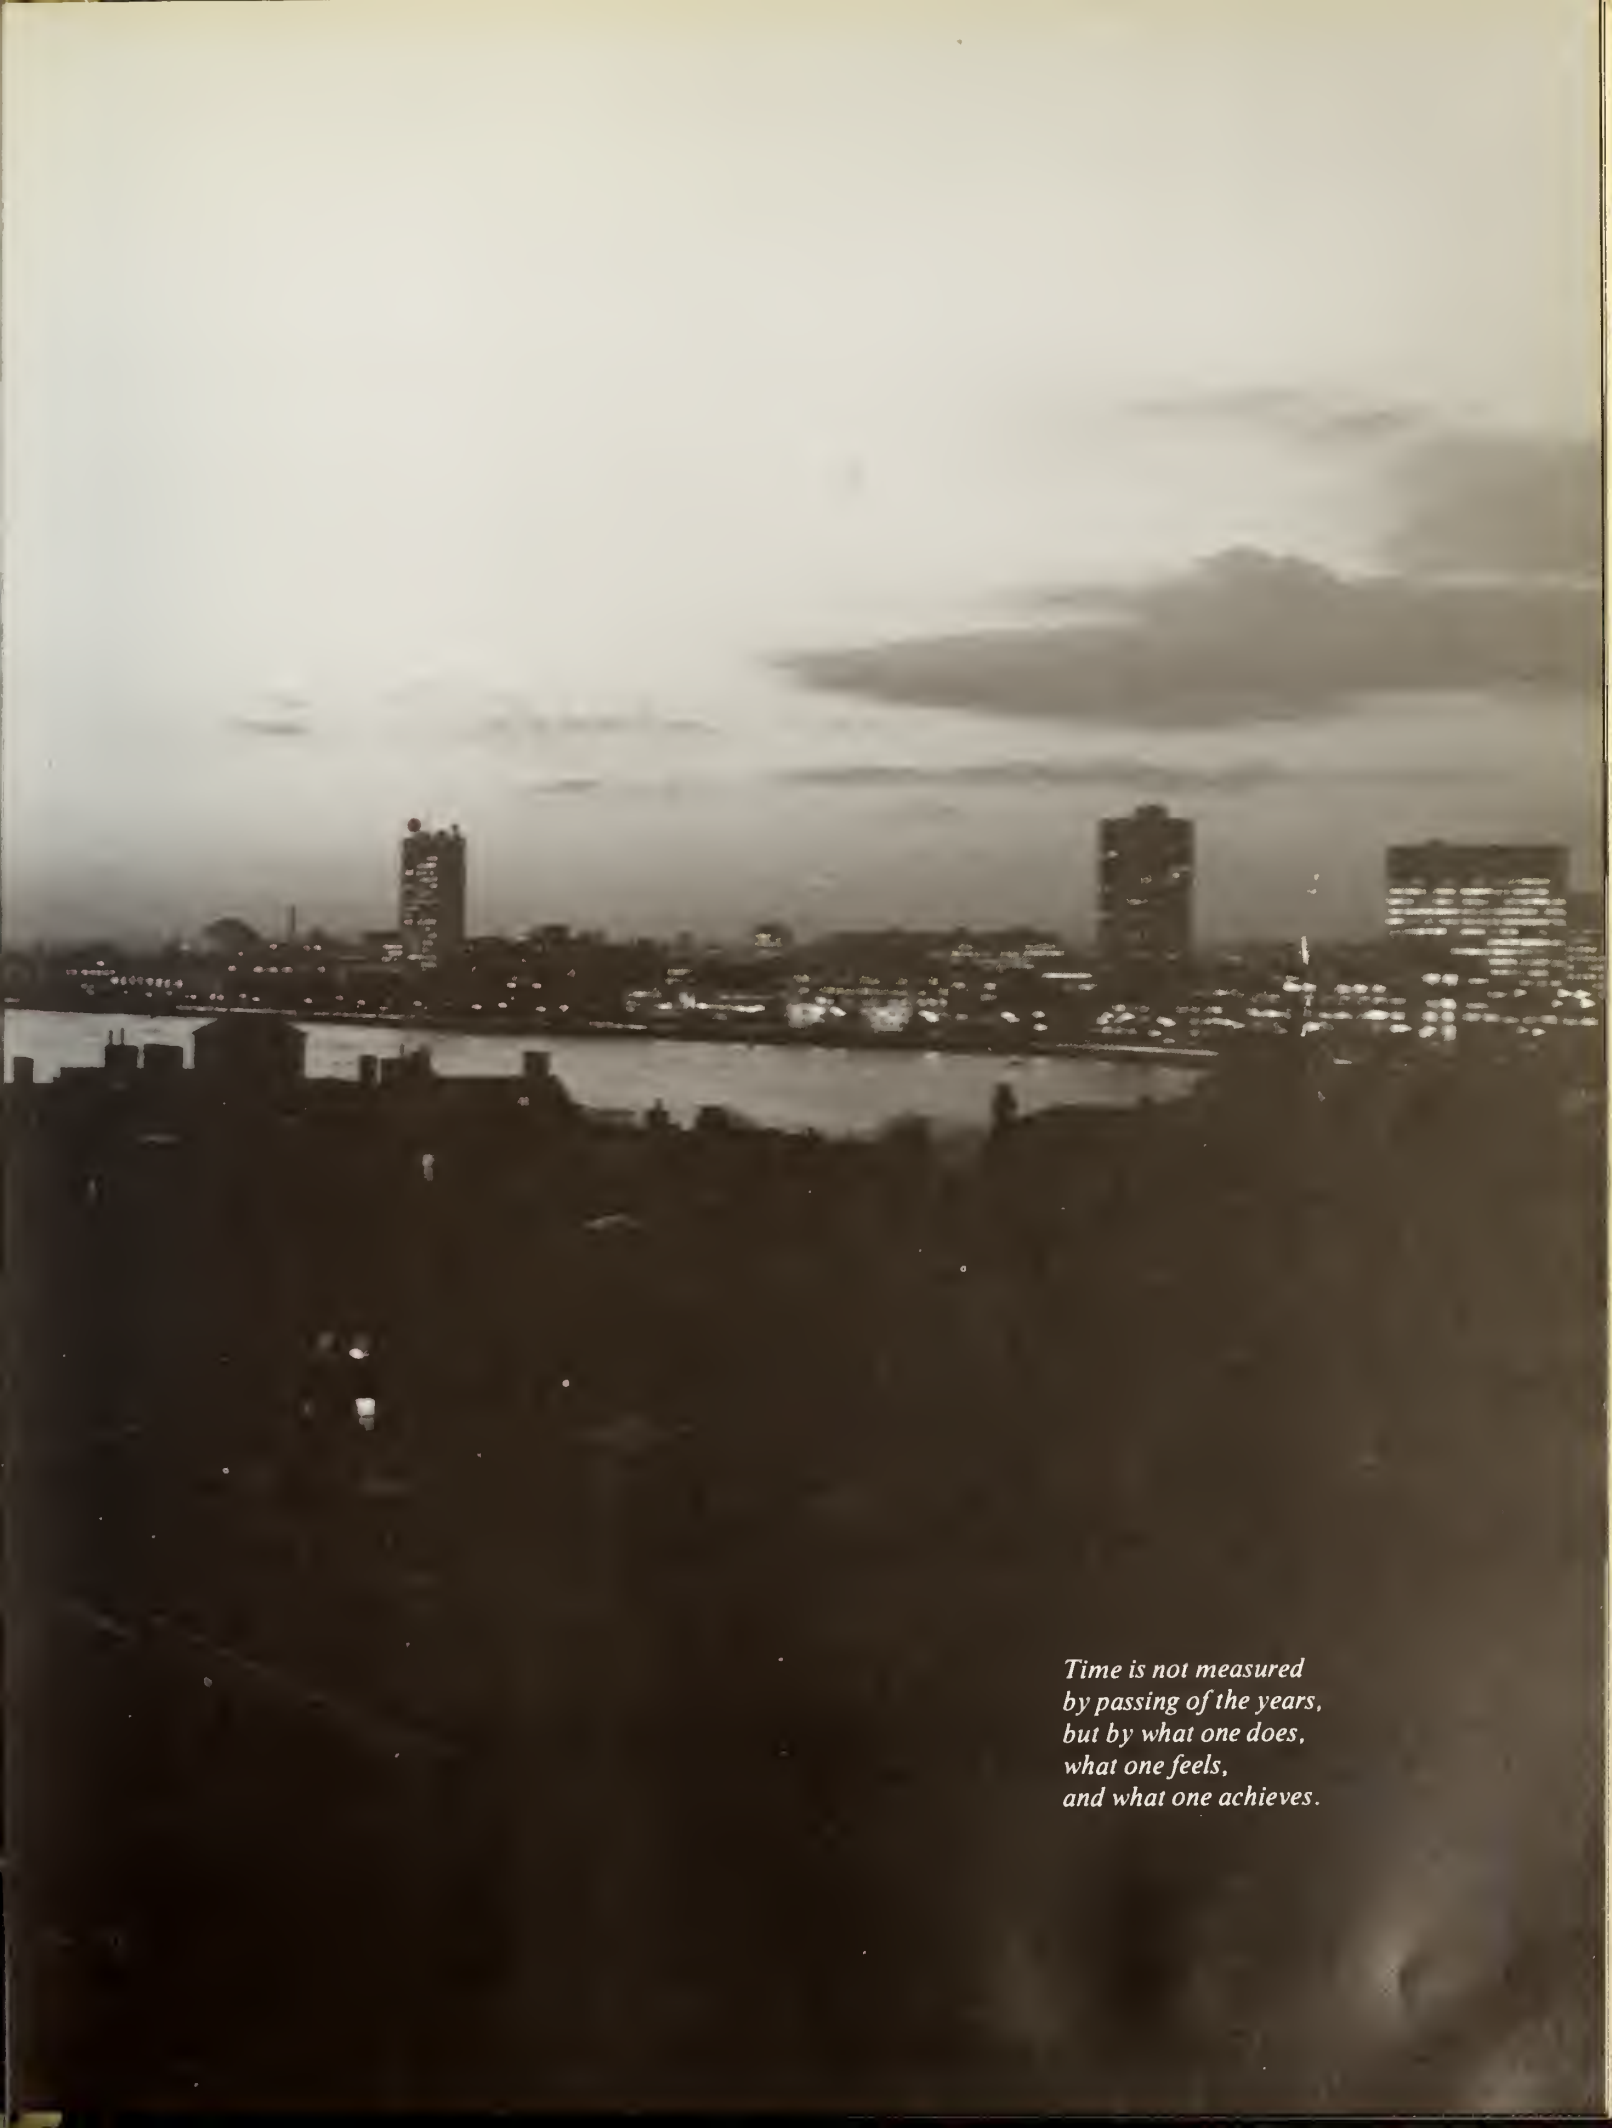
memories may be beautiful and yet
what's too painful to remember . . .
we simply choose to forget
so it's the laughter . . .
we will remember
whenever we remember . . .

the way we were.



Time is not measured
by passing of the years,
but by what one does,
what one feels,
and what one achieves.

DEDICATION

to mrs. dyer and father mark:

we said we could never make it . . . you said you knew we could. but not alone, you were with us all along. so very often we needed encouragement and you gave it to us. so desparately we needed to grow . . . and with the sun shine and the rain and your guidance we did grow — straight and tall. but most of all we needed a friend. someone who knew us as individuals as people as just us. you were there always ready to share our heart breaks, our joys our disillusions our sorrows.

for all the times you gave so much for the long nights you sat with us, for the silent prayers you whispered for us, and for the love . . . yes especially for the love, we thank you.

"don't believe what your eyes are telling you. all they show is limitation look with your understanding, find out what you already know, and you'll see the way to fly."

Nursing, to me, on one word is commitment; commitment to a value system predicted upon the belief in the "worthiness of people and those things which are important to them. To be a nurse is an honor, not a burden, a gaining, not a giving, a profession, not a trade. We are priviliged to deal with the real, not necessarily the ideal. By real we mean the small aches, the perennial agonies, hurts, hates, sorrows, anguish and separations that are the inevitable inheritance of all men. Loneliness, however, can be, and often is, the item on which the bud of commitment blossoms. We need each other's strength; we need each other's love.

Isolation is tolerable and necessary; understanding makes it productive.

And now
I lay me down to sleep
and not alone.
Dear God . . .
I do believe in you
how else could such a thing come true?

Nurse . . . here is my child
i leave him in your care.
a brimming heart does not
suffice for head and hands.
i cooled his fevered brow;
he's so bewildered . . . so
small amidst the automation
that surrounds him.
your knowledge and your
skill with all these gadgets
makes me marvel, still,
as the long night passes
and you check the maze of scientific things that bind him
from my arms, could you . . .
would you . . .
love him.

WELCOME TO STERILE CITY,
WHERE EVERYONE IS PRETTY,
AND ALL ARE DRESSED TO THE HILT.
WITH GOWNS TO YOUR TOES
AND MASKS OVER YOUR NOSE —
SO WHO CARES HOW YOU'RE BUILT?

WE'VE WASHED AND SCRUBBED;
WE'VE GOWNED AND GLOVED.
WE'VE LEARNED A NEW TECHNIQUE.
WE'VE WORN THE MASK,
AND STILL WE ASK
IS THAT TRANSVERSE OR OBLIQUE?

WITH THE BLADE AND KNIFE,
SIX WEEKS OF STRIFE.
A TIME NOT SOON FORGOTTEN.
PASS THE SNAP.
WAS THAT LITH OR LAP?
IS SILK THE SAME AS COTTON?

GIVE ME AN 817
YOU CERTAINLY ARE GREEN.
KEEP YOUR COOL AND DON'T BE NASTY.
THE LOUD REFRAINS
I WANT THOSE REMAINS —
MUST BE A REDUCTION MAMMOPLASTY.

NOW WHICH IS WORSE,
TO SECOND OR TO FIRST,
I CAN NEVER THREAD A STITCH.
WHAT'S A TOWEL CLIP?
DO I NEED A BOVIE TIP?
YES, DR. LINTON, IT'S BEEN A BITCH

WE'VE KNOWN THE BANE
OF THE QUARTER INCH DRAIN.
OUR INSTRUCTORS SAY WE'RE ABLE.
THE SURGEON'S BEEN WARNED —
HE LOOKS FORLORN.
HE'S SEEN BLACK STOCKINGS
BENEATH THE TABLE.

— to provide the best possible care for the greatest number of people —

Stitches out; teaching done; doctors consulted; medications taken; referrals written. one by one their faces appear and disappear — sad, happy, scared — young and old through the clinic assembly line.

"Nurse, thank-you — you girls in the black stockings always seem to have the time."

Five o'clock — peace.

I shall not pass this way again.
any good thing I can do,
or any kindness I can show,
let me do it now! Let me not defer it or neglect it. For I shall not pass this way
again.

may this year bring you much happiness with just enough sorrow for you to appreciate your joys.

may you learn to be strong enough to know when you are weak; and brave enough to face yourself when you are afraid. always be proud in honest defeat, and humble in victory.

may your wishes never replace your actions and may you realize that to know yourself is the cornerstone of knowledge.

let your heart be clear, your goals high, and remember to master yourself before you seek to master others. learn to laugh but never forget how to cry. reach into the future but never forget the past. remember to have a sense of humor that you may be serious yet never take yourself too seriously.

may you always have humility so that you may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom and the meekness of true strength.

The road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began
Now far ahead the road has gone
And I must follow if I can Pursuing it with weary feet
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet
— And whither then? I cannot say.
